DETAILED ACTION

- (1). Claims 1-3 are cancelled.

Allowable Subject Matter

- (2). Claims 4-5 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

- (3). The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

This Application is allowable in view of the features in the instant claim, and illustrated in the following:

The indirect heat exchanger 1 used as condenser at top of the desorption column uses coolant containing water and hydrogen sulfide to cool the vapor stream 3, the overflow of coolant 6 returns to the desorption column 2 which overcomes prior arts.

Closest prior art Elgue et al (US 5133949A) disclose process and device for the removal of  $H_2S$  (Title). As shown in the Figure below, it has an indirect heat exchanger 35 at bottom of the absorption column for  $H_2S$ , the scrubbing liquid 15 is used for cooling the inlet gas in counter current flow with gas, the scrubbing liquid 37 is returned to the desorption column. Because the indirect heat exchanger 55 is not located at top of the desorption column and the counter current flow mode of heat exchanger in the method disclosed by Elgue et al (US 5133949A), therefore prior art Elgue et al (US 5133949) do not anticipate nor render obvious to Applicant's invention.

Other related prior art Roth et al (US 5507356A), in that the column having integrated heat exchanger 2 at top, however, a separate circulation of water coolant is used for heat exchanger as shown in the Figure below. Roth et al (US 5507356A) fail to disclose the coolant containing hydrogen sulfide in cocurrent mode with gas flow, and coolant flow back to desorption column as claimed by Applicant.

Conclusively, instant claims 4-5 are considered to be novel and passed to issue as of the date of this Allowability Notice.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
